

What makes successful projects in transition regions?

Dr Robert Pollock, Senior Advisor
Secretariat for Coal Regions in Transition

Just Transition:

What makes a good project?

- Strategic fit - decarbonisation & economic diversification (the project is part of a long term strategy of change)
- Clarity on who will be the beneficiaries
- Addresses regional heterogeneity (actors, assets, skills, resources, etc.)
- Robust business case planning
- Responsive to the wider context in which it is set

Strategic Framing of Transition Projects #1

Strategic Framing of Transition Projects #2

Business Case Development #1

- Robust business case planning with clear governance
- Strategic impact – Just Transition
- Strategic framing – responds to unique context
- Affordability (including ongoing and whole life costs)
- Deliverability and Risk
- 5 case business model
